LAKE GOLF COURSE HAS CHANCE TO PAY OWN WAY

Operation of the Emerald Lake golf course in the western foothills as a municipal enterprise has a good chance of being self-sustaining based upon past operation and the experience of Pacific Grove with a similar course, it is indicated today in a report on file with the city council.

The report was prepared for the city council by City Manager E. A. Rolison, but he points out that he "makes no effort to draw conclusions or to predict the revenue which might be expected."

Rolison estimates that it will cost $8000 to maintain and operate the course for a 12-month period. This expense is set out as follows:

Cost of Operation

Salary for attendant, who would probably also get the clubhouse concessions, $1800.

Field labor (two men), $2250.

Water (20 acres at 70,000 cubic feet per acre) at 20 cents per C, $2800.

Extra labor and miscellaneous expense, $1150.

Total annual expence, $8,000.

An immediate expenditure of $1250 would be required to reclaim the course, which is overrun with weeds through lack of care and use during the past year or more.

The $1250 would be spent on reseeding the putting greens and making repairs to the water system. Other expenditures will also be required for necessary equipment such as tractor and mower unless the same are included with the acquisition of the property.

Rolison notes that while the proposed cost of maintenance is somewhat in excess of that of past practice on this particular course and no doubt will provide somewhat improved fairways, they cannot be expected to compare with well established courses until such time as the revenues will justify more intensive irrigation of fairway areas.

Estimated Revenues

As a guide to possible revenues, Rolison cites the income from the course during private operation from January 1, 1931, to December 31, 1931, and the expenses, as:

Total receipts, $6,007.20.

Total expense, $6,066.84.

The expense included $3,629.70 for salaries; $1,390.54 for water; $1,046.60 for miscellaneous. Of this latter sum, $279 was for three months' rental.

Receipts ranged from $158.50 during the winter month of December, to $906 in March.

Pacific Grove's Links

Pacific Grove had a gross income from the first year's operation of its golf course of $10,500.

To offset this revenue, an annual operating budget has been set up as follows:

Clubhouse labor (two men), $2700.

Clubhouse expenses, $600.

Field labor (four men), $4500.

Water (24 acres), $2100.

Other field expenses, $600.

Total operating expenses, $10,500.

The Pacific Grove course consists of 36 acres, and is located four blocks from the business center of town. It was built during the first six months of 1932, involving land purchase and construction as follows:

Purchase of land (36 acres), $10,750.

Grading and cleaning, $3852.

Water system, $7108.

Seeding and cultivating, $6200.

Clubhouse equipment, $6490.

Architecture and miscellaneous, $1530.

Total capital outlay, $38,037.

Emerald Lake Links

The Emerald Lake links would comprise approximately 42 acres, located one and one-half miles west of the westerly line from the city.

The elevation, while variable, will range around 500 feet above sea level, and the boundary is irregular, neither of which, Rolison states, is any handicap for the purpose which it is intended with the exception that the cost of water at this elevation is obviously in excess of what it could be supplied for at a lower level.

In this connection, Rolison calls attention to the fact that the present transmission line and other water distribution facilities in this vicinity are inadequate to furnish a sufficient supply for the purpose of irrigating any considerable amount of fairway area.

To Be Corrected

This condition, it is hoped however, will be corrected if and when the city is in a position to proceed with the construction of a 1,000,000 gallon reservoir and eight inch cast iron transmission main leading from the storage supply on lower levels, which project is now before the federal public works board.

Improvement of the Emerald Lake system is not being made for the golf course, but for better service to the residents of that area. The development, undertaken by the city, is to be self-sustaining and will be repayable from the revenues.

No Price Yet Set

The city manager points out that no definite price has been set for the 42-acre playground. The land is in the hands of Hall and Lee Ross, local attorneys, who acquired it at public auction.

The course, if acquired, would be developed as a city park, with facilities for all classes of sports.

Rolison's report was prepared to guide the council in rendering a decision regarding the lease or acquisition of the course by the city, if either of these steps should be taken.

TENNIS COURT PLEAS WIN FAVOR; CITY LACKS CASH

Pleas of the Rev. Norman W. Pendleton and other tennis fans for adequate court facilities fell upon considerate ears of the city council members Monday night.

However, the council advised the petitioners that no provisions were made in the new budget for this recreation, and doubt was expressed that any funds could now be found for the purpose.

City Manager Ernest Rolison and City Engineer Charles Dimmitt estimated that at least $3000 would be required for a first class, double court.

While acknowledging the need for these facilities, Rolison informed the council that he would "not know where to begin to look" for the funds.

Pendleton requested an "adequate group" of courts, and in answer to Council Charles Lambert's query as to how many were being asked, replied that one or two in Mezes Plaza would be a good starter.

The petitioner said that the great need of these facilities was "spotlighted" by The Tribune's recent tennis tournament, when tennis fans were being driven out of town to play their matches because of a lack of suitable public courts here.

Playing was done on courts at San Mateo, Burlingame, Palo Alto and Stanford, he said.

Paul Reimer and Theron Seitz, who went as far as San Francisco to get in some play, and R. E. Savage joined in the plea for tennis facilities. They declared Redwood City was far behind in recreational opportunities.

Another to make a plea was Elbert Thomas, Tribune sports editor, who conducted the tennis tournament, and who suggested that temporary relief might be had by resurfacing the courts at Sequoia.

Councilman Paul McCarthy, chairman of the city's recreation com[illegible] admitted that the city [illegible]ing "just as soon as the present stress passes."

One ray of hope for the tennis fans was that the city may not need all of the $5000 placed into the unbudgeted reserve for unemployment relief. If any of this fund is left after the winter, some of it could probably go toward courts, it was agreed.

Utility Profits Would Mean City Play Area: Jones

Ownership of Redwood City's public utilities so that the rich profits may come to the people instead of private corporations, was Councilman Robert Jones' solution of the recreational problem of the city.

"The simple way out of the problem is for us to own our utilities," said Jones, when the council Monday decried its inability to give the citizens tennis courts and other recreational facilities.

"That's the best speech of the night," the Rev. Norman Pendleton, who gave a fervent plea for places to play, said in applauding Jones' stand. The council, as well, agreed that that was the answer.

Public Invited to P.-T.A. Meeting Here

Mrs. John Garland, president of the 17th district, Congress of Parents and Teachers, emphasized today that the public is invited to the regional conference to be held here tomorrow afternoon from 1 to 4 at Sequoia high school.

Charles S. Morris, dean of the San Mateo Junior College, heads the list of well-known speakers.

Pet Collie Likes Home Here Best

"Taz," a white collie owned by James Hearne, has a splendid appreciation of home and is determined never to leave it.

The animal has a habit of chasing automobiles passing the Hearne store on Broadway, thereby endangering his life. The fond owner, sooner than see the dog killed, decided to give him away to a friend in San Francisco.

"Taz" pined for his former home and owner and so decided to make a break for Redwood City. After dashing through the city the animal sought El Camino Real, and was leisurely trotting past Holy Cross Cemetery when he was espied by a friend of Mr. Hearne's. The dog was given a "lift" home.

Notwithstanding the canine's shortcomings, Mr. Hearne has determined that "Taz" will never again be sent away but always will find an abode in Redwood City.

Belle Haven Scene of Big Realty Party

All the employes of the D. D. Bohannon Company enjoyed a field day and picnic at Belle Haven last Saturday. Fully 300 were present to participate in the festivities and take part in the games and races. It was a very happy occasion where the employer and employes mingled in making the day one to be remembered.

Under the oaks tables were arranged on which the choice steaks, barbecued by expert cooks, were spread. The keen appetites of the picnickers being satisfied, the afternoon was given up to sports. Many records were made by the young salesmen who participated in the races. Dancing was also indulged in by the crowd.

This has been for some years and annual affair and is looked forward to with much anticipation. At these events awards are made to those making the most sales during the year.

McCarthy Here In Interests Of Governor

W. C. McCarthy, executive secretary of Governor Rolph, was in this city yesterday calling on old friends. McCarthy, who is one of the best posted men in politics in the state, would not commit himself regarding the future of the governor. If his health permits Rolph will most likely become a candidate to succeed himself. McCarthy asserted there is a reaction in favor of the chief executive throughout the state and no doubt if Rolph became a candidate he would win. There will be at least five candidates in the south seeking the nomination for governor. Should Rolph be the only aspirant in the north it could be easily seen what a splendid chance he would have to retain his office. Of course Republicans have to reckon with the Democrats nevt year as the registration shows a decided gain for the Bourbons during the past six months. Rolph has a large Democratic following and with his vote of his own party could win in the November election.

Tanforan 1st To Get State Racing Permit

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3 (UP)—The Tanforan Company Ltd., operators of the Tanforan track, today received the first racing permit granted by the California State Racing Commission to operate under the pari-mutuel system of wagering.

The Tanforan promoters are understood to be the only ones planning a fall race meeting on a large scale. They formerly operated under the option system of betting.

PLAN NEW FACTORY

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The American Brake Shoe Manufacturing Company plans a new $50,000 factory here, according to plan filed with the council. They were referred to the building inspector for his report.

COUNTY ACCEPTS DEEDS ON LA HONDA WIDENING

Deeds to two more miles of right of way for the wider La Honda highway west from the Skyline boulevard were accepted by the board of supervisors at Monday's meeting, assuring further progress on this important cross-county artery.

The board, upon motion of Supervisor John Poole, Redwood City, and second of Supervisor Manuel Francis, agreed to pay $4425 for the rights of way.

County Engineer James S. James advised the board to accept the deeds at once as the land could not again be secured at that price, he said. Similar advice was given by H. C. Tuchsen, appraiser, who secured the deeds. Tuchsen said they represent more than 90 per cent of the necessary right of way. Condemnation proceedings may be necessary to secure two additional parcels.

The two-mile stretch is that extending from the end of the first mile of reconstruction beyond the Skyline to the Woodruff Creek station.

To Establish Camp

Willingness to cancel taxes on the old moving picture studio at San Mateo if the property can be secured for an itinerant camp was expressed by the supervisors at the request of Capt. Edward Macauley and Sam D. Merk, relief chiefs.

This camp would also take care of tourist families passing through in search of employment, and also homeless local men. If established, the county will take steps to close the "jungle" camps at Belmont, Millbrae and other points.

Order Sewer Inquiry

On complaint of Mrs. Ella Chase, San Bruno, that some $22,000 has been spent on the San Bruno-Lomita Park sewer without it being clear to her where this money was coming from, the board granted her request for an inquiry.

She said that regardless if the district board or the county relief funds were the sources, the district should be so informed. The board referred the matter to District Attorney Edmund Scott.

Election Protested

Attorney Norman Menifee of Redwood City, on behalf of the directors of the Brisbane Public Utility District, protested the legality of the disincorporation election held last week. The election was voided by failure to serve notice of the intended voting on the directors, he said.

Jack Wheeler, leader in the disincorporation efforts, argued that the directors had full knowledge of the election and that the legal "technicality" could be overlooked. Assistant District Attorney Richard Bell advised the board that another election would be necessary. As early a date as possible will be set by the board as soon as Wheeler presents new petitions.

Drop Sewer Plans

County Manager Walter T. Kellogg informed the board that at a conference in San Francisco yesterday, Chief Administrator Cleary had agreed to abandon the plan to dispose of the jail sewage in San Bruno creek, which met with protests from the cities of San Mateo, Burlingame and Hillsborough.

Kellogg said San Francisco will spend $10,000 in piping the sewage over the hills to Sharp's Park, the municipal golf course at Salada Beach, and will treat it there, using the effluent for irrigation purposes.

Asks Garbage Permit

Louis Tournahue, who holds the franchise for the disposal of San Bruno garbage, asked the board for a permit to dump on the George Arata ranch, south of Lawndale.

Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, said that Tournahue was under arrest for violating the county garbage ordinance and that his permit should be withheld until the court rules on his case. On Witt's suggestion, the board referred the question to Dr. Harold Morrison, county health officer.

New Jobs Approved

Another series of relief projects, to cost $7200, was approved by the board. The work includes the expenditure of $4800 on Ralston boulevard, in Belmont; $1200 on Jefferson avenue, Redwood City, and $600 for cleaning the refuse out of the creeks in San Carlos.

Work on the widening and repairing of Hillside boulevard, from School street, Daly City, to Bayshore boulevard, South San Francisco, was ordered by the board.

Land Use Ordinance

The county planning commission agreed to suggested changes in the Southern San Mateo county land use ordinance as requested by East Palo Alto and Palo Alto Park property owners, and the code was readopted by the board.

Palo Alto Park property owners asked that the setback line remain at 15 feet, instead of 25 feet, and East Palo Alto protestants requested that the 12-foot setback be disregarded if property is confiscated by its application. These terms were acceptable to both the planners and the supervisors.

Asks County to Pay

George W. Fletcher, San Carlos, presented a bill for $37 for damages suffered by his car as the result of an accident with the automobile of Dr. Morrison, county health officer, on September 1. The bill was referred to the district attorney for a report.

Pleas of C. H. Guffey, Menlo avenue, and William Germain, Lemon and Santa Cruz avenue, both in Menlo Park, for kennel permits, were referred by the board to the planning commission.

Application of James Durant of San Mateo for a traffic berth was filed.

The salary of Miss Ellen Collard, secretary to Dr. J. C. McGovern, county coroner, which had been reduced from $150 through an error, was restored.

The plan of C. G. Uhlenberg of Redwood City to conduct a personnel survey of the county was continued for one month.

Dr. C. V. Thompson, board chairman, returned after several weeks of illness.

Drunk Driving Charges Faced After Mishaps

Two persons, a Burlingame woman and a Redwood City Negro, were held Monday by peninsula police departments for driving automobiles while assertedly under the influence of liquor.

Mrs. Helen Parker, 30, of 212 Grand boulevard, San Mateo, was booked by police Monday after her car had collided with a police patrol automobile.

She was held under $250 bail by Police Judge Stanley Kelly. A companion, Lloyd Steelman, 32, of San Francisco, charged with intoxication, was released on $25 bail.

Patrolman Alfred Marion was checking the lights of a car which he had just halted when Mrs. Parker came along and struck both standing vehicles, the officer charged.

Frank Dureou, 32, gardener, who lives between Redwood City and Atherton, was held by San Carlos police on the same charge following an automobile accident near the northerly Redwood City limits Sunday night. No one was injured.

Dureou, a Negro, was arrested by Police Chief Edward Wheeler, and will appear before Police Judge Johnson Wednesday night at 7:30 at San Carlos.

The accused motorist's car collided with one driven by Fred Weichel, 130 Sadowa street, San Francisco. Dureou, according to Deputy District Attorney Harold Anderson, has two previous traffic violations against him.

Veteran's Cuts Total $400,000 In This County

Veterans of San Mateo county lost $416,726 in income through congressional economies voted in March, 1933, according to a report on file today with the supervisors and prepared by the relief committee of the county war veterans' council.

Some 783 peninsula veterans were affected by the legislation, William H. Augustus, secretary of the committee, reports. The county will be forced to care for the veterans and to give hospitalization to the extent of $179,353, it is estimated. These figures together affect San Mateo county to the extent of $596,077.

The supervisors will be asked to memorialize congress to reimburse the county.

Herrick Upheld in His Divorce Battle

The 10-year-old divorce battle of Lester Herrick, wealthy San Francisco accountant, and his former wife, Mrs. Eleanor Miller Herrick, socially prominent Atherton matron, has apparently come to an end.

The Nevada Supreme Court, according to the Associated Press, has upheld a Reno divorce obtained by Herrick last year. Mrs. Herrick had attacked the decree on the grounds that the Reno court lacked jurisdiction.

She declared the case was closed when the California courts awarded her a $200 per month separate maintenance. Herrick has since married Miss Lenamae Williams, drama teacher at Girls' High School.

ACTRESS DIES

Renee Adoree, motion picture actress, long ill with tuberculosis, died Thursday in a sanitarium at Sunland. Miss Adoree was born in Lille, France. Her father and mother were circus troupers. She, herself, made her first public appearance as a circus dancer. She first began work in pictures in 1920. Her most successful role was the feminine lead in "The Big Parade."

Road Control Arguments Before Court

The state supreme court today has under submission the arguments of opposing counsel on the question of road control in San Mateo county, following the presentation of the case to the justices yesterday in San Francisco.

Permission for County Counsel Mattoon of Los Angeles county to file a brief in behalf of San Mateo county's charter provision giving control of roads to the county engineer was granted by the justices.

Attorney Arthur Redington of Hillsborough, one of the charter writers, also obtained permission to file a brief on behalf of County Engineer James S. James, supporting control of roads by the engineer.

These briefs are to be filed within 10 days, after which Attorney Richard O'Connor, representing Jack Reuter, Redwood City, will be given 10 days in which to file an answer.

The question being submitted to the high tribunal is whether the charter provision taking road control from the supervisors and placing it in James' hands is legal or not.

An incidental question, whether Engineer James legally holds his post, found the justices satisfied that he did, it was reported.

Attorney W. H. Morrissey of Redwood City was prepared to argue against James on this point.

District Attorney Edmund Scott and Assistant District Attorney Richard Bell presented the arguments in favor of the charter's provisions.

Kellogg Test Is Filed Here By Attorney

Test of Walter T. Kellogg's right to the county manager post of San Mateo county was filed here today by Attorney John E. Manders on behalf of E. H. Forestier, Burlingame taxpayer and protestant. Manders is joined in the complaint by Attorney General U. S. Webb and Deputy Attorney General Leon French.

The complaint is a "quo warranto" proceeding which asks by what authorities Kellogg hoids the office. It is charged that he was an agent of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company when appointed and that the supervisors had no authority under the charter to make the appointment.

Redwood City Still Holds Y Fund Lead

Redwood City has reached the $1,114 mark in the Young Men's Christian Association campaign, according to last night's committee report, and holds her own against the reports of Burlingame and San Mateo. The standings in the race by the three cities is as follows: Redwood City 60 per cent, San Mateo 49 per cent, Burlingame 43 per cent.

HUGE NRA PARADE WILL BE HELD HERE TONIGHT

With the arrival of W. H. Moulthrop, parade director, from Los Angeles on Thursday, a special meeting of the NRA committee and representatives of the retail division was held at the chamber of commerce to make the last minute preparations for the big parade and demonstration which will take place this evening.

Fall fashions will make their appearance when merchants unveil the windows at 7:15; the parade will start promptly at 8 o'clock, and the automobile show and other features will follow immediately afterward.

Director Moulthrop is making his headquarters at the chamber of commerce office until after the celebration. Final parade orders will go forth this afternoon to all entries.

The chiefs of police of three cities will be at the head of the parade on foot. They are Chief of Police Wheeler of San Carlos, Chief of Police Farrell of Atherton and Chief of Police Collins of Redwood City. There will also be about 15 state motor police on motorcycles and in official cars.

Mattox to Speak

The NRA executive committee and compliance board, with E. Tilden Mattox, district manager and secretary, as their guest, will leave their cars when the head of the parade passes the east side of the court house on Middlefield road and will enter a stand where they will review the balance of the parade. The address by Mr. Mattox, which will be broadcast by a loud speaker, will follow immediately after the last entry of the parade has passed.

Word was received this morning that the Sea Scouts will enter a symbolic float. Other late entries including music organizations are being made. One of the most outstanding entries will be that of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. This will consist of a band, a float, marching delegation and a novelty stunt.

Fashion Show Planned

A lieutenant of the United States Marines visited the city yesterday and went over the line of march with NRA Chairman Edward T. Harrison completing all arrangements for the two platoons of marines who will appear at the head of the parade.

Stores are making last minute arrangements for the fashion show which will be held. At noon on Friday a fashion show held in cooperation with the merchants of the community will take place at the assembly room at Sequoia Union High School. This show will be given again Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock as an important part of the two-day "buy now" parade and celebration.

Police Chief Collins asked that motorists keep Broadway, Main street and Middlefield road clear of cars after 7 p. m. so that there will be no interference with the parade.

Automobile Show

Following the NRA parade, local automobile dealers will stage an automobile show on California street, just off Broadway. Models of nearly every make of car on sale in this locality will be on display. Newest models, styles and

Flood lights from the top of The Tribune building will illuminate the street. Music will be provided.

Foreign Vets Marching

Local post 2310, Veterans of Foreign Wars, under the leadership of Major Geo. H. Pryor, will form a marching column of about 50 strong in the NRA parade, it was announced today by Donald Sevier. All members are requested to meet in front of the First Methodist Church at 7:15 p. m. tomorrow night.

Odd Fellows' lodge members are asked to meet tonight at 7 o'clock in Odd Fellows' Hall for final arrangements for the NRA parade participation.

Fashion Show Saturday

Twenty attractive Sequoia girls will appear as models at the fashion show to be given Saturday night in the high school auditorium under the sponsorship of the Sequoia Girls' Society in cooperation with the chambers of commerce of Redwood City, San Carlos and Belmont, and local merchants. Admission will be free.

The models are being trained by Mme. A. Raymonde, local costume designer, who has directed professional models in fashion shows in Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Two girls, Mildred Mills and Augusta Stangl, will act as pages, while Orpha Koehn will be the announcer and official mistress of ceremonies.

Through the courtesy of a local beauty shop, the models will be given free hairdresses. Each girl will display several costumes, including wearing apparel from lounging robes to evening gowns.

Names of Models

Girls who will participate as models are as follows: Florence Barrett, Elizabeth Davidson, Audrey Douglas, Vivian Douglas, Marie Farmer, Dorothy Fina, Mary Dora Lane, Charlon Lothrop, Lavonne McAtee, Gaila McEntee, Marie Miller, Geraldine Minor, Edith Norton, Carmen Pramberg, Laverne Rush, Anne Skrabo, Grace Stahlecker, Lorraine Witte, and Sorrita Zimmerman.

COUNCIL DELAYS ACTION ON HIGHWAY SURRENDER

Surrender to the state highway commission of Redwood City's rights on El Camino Real in connection with the expenditure by the state of the city's share of the gasoline tax fund was delayed for two weeks by the city council Monday night.

The board will determine what other cities are doing before taking the step.

Also at stake in the surrender is Redwood City's rights on the Bayshore highway. There was no controversy over this artery.

City Manager E. A. Rolison, in presenting the resolution giving state control of the thoroughfare through the city, said it would speed the state expenditure of funds for the necessary widening.

The ¼-cent tax will not produce sufficient revenue for more than a start of that work, Rolison said, but if the state is given control, it will find the money to do the job.

Question Intentions

Councilmen Henry Beeger and George McNulty were "suspicious" of the state's intentions in regard to the use of the city's share of the ¼-cent tax. McNulty said that when the state was ready to widen the highway that it would be "soon enough" to surrender the city's rights.

Councilman Paul McCarthy suggested that the city's interests might be protected by the inclusion of a paragraph declaring its rights in all existing sewers, drains, pipes, conduits, and traffic signals.

Rolison believed that with the state in control the ditch problem along El Camino Real near Five Points would be solved without expense to the local property owners. It was agreed that this was an expense that should fall to the state when the highway is widened.

Ask Hall Improvements

The United Veterans' Council, Redwood City, represented by Charles Frey, asked the city council to assume the cost of certain needed installations, and also the expense of upkeep, of the veterans' hall in Mezes Plaza.

Facilities needed are a heating plant and a ventilating system, Frey said. He also asked the board to pay the monthly lighting bill and the cost of garbage collection. The requests were referred to City Manager Rolison for a report.

J. B. Shook, city poundmaster, complained before the city board that his right hand was still partially disabled from the effects of his fight with a Great Dane at the city pound on May 12.

City Attorney Mansfield was asked to go to San Francisco with Shook and to take the matter up with the state compensation insurance commission.

Building of ways at the yacht harbor so that boats can be kept in repair was asked by Councilman Beeger and received the council's support. Local boat owners must now go to Palo Alto to secure the necessary facilities.

The council voted $50 toward the fund campaign of the Young Men's Christian Association on motion of Councilman Lambert, seconded by Councilman Hildebrand.

Depot's Appearance Arouses Protests

Attention of the Southern Pacific will be called to its asserted negligence in the upkeep of the depot and freight properties here.

The city council agreed Monday to do this, after getting a protest from the chamber of commerce.

City Manager Ernest Rolison agreed that the railroad has been "very negligible" in the upkeep of the grounds. "Real pressure" will be needed to obtain results, Rolison said.

City Clerk B. E. Myers called attention to the dangers of rocks being hurled by automobile tires while passing over the freight shed yards. He told of one such accident in which a rock was hurled by a car through the windows of the Sequoia Laundry.

It will be pointed out to the Southern Pacific that such a mishap could maim or kill a person and that the railroad would be liable.

Electrical Contractors Sign Code

A meeting of the local electrical contractors was held last evening, at which time the local NRA code was signed. This allows them to work on a 35-hour per week basis, which means that no contracting work will be done on Saturday. A price stabilization code was also passed on at the meeting.

Chairman John Rolla presided over the meeting. It was the first time all the electrical contractors were ever present at one gathering.

Menlo Park

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Buchanan, the former Miss Ethel O'Keefe, returned last Monday from a honeymoon trip around the world. The couple were met at the pier in San Francisco by friends and relatives as the ship docked. Much stormy weather was encountered as the ship left the canal zone disabling the vessel. It was a thrilling experience for the two travelers from Menlo Park. Mr. Buchannan has returned to his duties as a teacher in the history department of Stanford.

John Shortridge, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shortridge, returned this week after a three weeks' trip to Honolulu.

The New Menlo Theatre, its interior remodeled and altered, was reopened last evening. A large crowd greeted one of the latest pictures of Constance Bennett. New seats and lights and stage furnishings are among the improvements. It is now one of the coziest little theatres on the peninsula. The new management promises up-to-date pictures and a program that is certain to please fans.

The last vestige of the old Pioneer Stables was removed this week. The land mark was erected in the sixties by the late Barney Gorman who did a thriving business. The Feltons, Stanfords and Floods often stabled their horses there. The building had outlived its usefulness, was tottering and ready to fall when the fire chief condemned it and ordered the structure wrecked. The building is now only a memory of the past.

B. P. Lausten, who passed away in Palo Alto this week, was widely known in Menlo Park, having established a tailoring business in the Coxin block over 30 years ago. Seeing possibilities in the then rapidly growing city of Palo was a member of the city counsuccessful. For many years he Alto, he moved there and became cil. Lausten came to Menlo Park from Berkeley as a young man. His youngest son, Roy, was born here. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Rose Lausten, and five children: Mrs. Hal Harvard, Hollywood; Mrs. Harrington Wells, Santa Barbara; Mrs. George Ashley, Palo Alto; Roy and Jack, both of Palo Alto.

The regular monthly afternoon card party given by the American Legion Auxiliary will be given in Legion Hall Friday, October 6, at 2 p. m.

The American Legion Post, No. 443, will bring their colors to Redwood City Friday night and march in the NRA parade.

The city council held a special meeting in the city hall Wednesday night to consider a resolution pertaining to the Menlo Park City Hall. Mayor Weeden presided.

Jean B. Hoss called a meeting Wednesday to discuss plans for the NRA parade which is to be held in Redwood City Friday, October 6.

Mrs. E. M. Massey, garden chairman of the San Mateo County Federation of Women's Clubs, entertained the members of the Woman's Club of Menlo Park at her Redwood City home Monday afternoon. Mrs. J. T. Abel presided at the business meeting and plans were made for a card party to be given at the Atherton home of Mrs. Marion Silva on Saturday evening. The admission charge of 25 cents will cover score cards and refreshments. Mrs. Minna A. Lee was welcomed into membership at this meeting.

The Presbyterian church served one of their delightful dinners in the social hall Thursday evening. The affair was a big success.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Worrell have gone to their Seabright cottage for the winter. Their house in Menlo Park will be occupied by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Worrell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Langley Howard and their two children, Samuel and Anne, have come here from Monterey to be near the Peninsula school and are living on Menlo Oaks drive. The two children are enrolled in the school. Mr. Howard is a son of John Gelen Howard, the noted architect who was for many years director of the department of architecture at the University of California.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Leong, in the Palo Alto Hospital, October 4, a daughter.

Evening classes in citizenship and in English for foreigners were started last night in Central school. In formation regarding these classes may be obtained from Mrs. E. H. Werthman, Palo Alto 4067.

Acting on information furnished Chief of Polic Ed Farrell of Atherton by Chief Thomas Kearney o fMenlo Park Police Officer Rollen Somer of Atherton and Constable Grill and a deputy from the Santa Clara county sheriff's office took Fred ("Dutch") Matson into custody at Gilroy as a suspect in the hit and run tradegy that resulted in two deaths Sunday evening on Valparaiso avenue.

State Won't Probe Cement 'Favoritism'

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 3 (UP)—State officials will make no investigation of reports concerning alleged favoritism in the changing of specifications for cement to be used in construction of the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge.

Before leaving for Washington, D. C., Earl Lee Kelly, state director of public works, said he had received reports Governor Rolph wanted an investigation made of the whole affair.

Later Governor Rolph denied that he had made such a request and said that he "didn't know anything about it."

Both Kelly and C. H. Purcell, bridge engineer, said there was "nothing to investigate" inasmuch as all major cement companies in California "could meet the new specifications."

Herrscher Will Is Contested in S. F.

The will of Mrs. Erna Herrscher, divorced wife of Edmond Herrscher, Hillsborough attorney, was subjected to a contest in San Francisco today by a grand niece, Mrs. Eda Rothmeyer.

Mrs. Rothmeyer charges that Mrs. Herrscher was of unsound mind and was subjected to undue influence when the will was made.

Mrs. Herrscher, who died in Paris last March, left the bulk of her estate to Max Horn of Germany. Recently three relatives in Germany brought suit to break the will.

Herrscher is now married to the former Mrs. Fannie May Howard, divorced wife of the auto magnate.

Head of Ad Agency Dies After Illness

BURLINGAME, Oct. 2 (UP)—Fred L. Hall, 59, president of Fenger-Hall Co., national newspaper representatives, with headquarters in San Francisco, died at his home here today after a brief illness.

Funeral services will be conducted in Oakland Thursday afternoon, with interment in Cypress Lawn. Hall, widely known in Pacific coast newspaper circles, was born in Vallejo, September 27, 1874. He was connected with the Oakland Tribune for a number of years, and served as president of the Oakland Advertising Club and later as president of the Newspaper Representatives' Club in San Francisco.

He was connected with Fenger-Hall Co. for 12 years.

Surviving him are his widow and two daughters, Dorothy Hall and Caroline Close.

Blazing Gasoline in Garage Burns Three

SAN MATEO, Oct. 4.—Explosion of a gasoline tank cart while firemen were battling a fire in a local garage last night resulted in severe burns to two city firemen and a civilian. One of the firemen was so badly burned that it was feared he might die.

Richard Bourner, assistant San Mateo fire chief, who has severe burns on the head, arms and body, is the most seriously injured.

Also injured are Firemen Henry Henriolle of San Mateo, burned on the hands and arms, and R. A. Palin, San Mateo garageman, who was burned on the back.

The fire broke out in the garage of Remmers & Smith at San Mateo drive and Peninsula avenue, not far from Palin's own garage.

The injured were taken to the Mills hospital.

Miss Kyne Unhurt In Coast Accident

Miss Margaret Kyne, 56, sister of Peter B. Kyne, the noted author, escaped injuries in an automobile accident on the Coast highway near Miramar, according to a report filed today with the traffic bureau by Officer Jack Quinlan.

Miss Kyne's car and one driven by Harold Walrath, 33, of 661 Turk street, San Francisco, collided on a curve. Neither was injured. The author's sister is secretary to Dr. Walter B. Coffey, noted San Francisco physician.

San Bruno Newspaper Seeks Legal Standing

Petition to establish the San Bruno Herald and Peninsula News as a newspaper of general circulation was placed on file here today by Harry Elston, publisher, with the superior court. The purpose of the proceeding is to establish the newspaper's legal standing.

Ted Wiget And Stanford Co-ed Elope to Reno

PALO ALTO, Oct. 2 (UP)—A Campus romance resulting in an elopment and wedding in Reno was revealed here today when announcement was made of the marriage of Marcia Walrath, 19, of Hillsdale, Michigan, to Ted Wiget, 21, swimming star.

The couple slipped away from the Stanford-UCLA football game at the end of the third quarter Saturday. The wedding was performed in Reno that night.

Stanford officials said neither Wiget nor his bride would return to school.

Redwood City 30 Years Ago

Mrs. E. T. Gourley of Santa Barbara came here yesterday to spend a few days with her aunt, Mrs. H. S. Johnston of Ivy Cottage.

Frank M. Granger will conduct an excursion to Oakland tomorrow on his new gasoline launch "Satellite." Accommodations will be provided for 15 and the round-trip fair will be $1.50. Those who desire to go should apply to Mr. Granger at once.

District Attorney J. J. Bullock on last Thursday filed an information against S. Thompson charging him with an assault to do great bodily injury. The accused will appear and plead to the information next Monday. Thompson assaulted a Southern Pacific conductor at the depot a month ago.

Harry Harrmell, who was sent to San Quentin for 25 years from here something over a year ago for burglarizing the San Mateo and Burlingame postoffices, made an attempt to cut his way out of the cell of the prison Wednesday. When interviewed by the Warden he said that his operations had been in progress since last June. While incarcerated in the county jail here, pending his trial, he made a bold attempt to escape. Attorney F. H. Thorpe defended Hammel at the trial of the case.

Mail Carrier Will Be On Probation

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2 (UP)—Thomas Notote, Burlingame mail carrier who pleaded guilty to charges of purloining money from the mails, was placed on five years probation by Federal Judge St. Sure.

Income Tax Queries Are Sought Here

George W. Boyd, former assistant chief of the income tax division, United States internal revenue department, will be in Redwood City during the next few weeks to answer questions regarding income tax reports which contained errors. A permanent deputy income tax collector for this county will be appointed within the near future.

Mr. Boyd is located in the law library of the courthouse and is there every morning from 9 to 11 o'clock.

Any resident of San Mateo county having questions concerning his income tax is asked to get in touch with Mr. Boyd at once.

Mills Field Landing Area Held Too Small

Further use of the Mills Field airport at San Bruno by air transport lines will be halted by the federal government unless the landing area is increased.

This ultimatum was given to San Francisco officials today by George E. Gardner, chief of the department of commerce's aeronautics inspection service.

The public utilities committee of San Francisco points out that one of 13 projects planned in the NRA public works program is an expenditure of $260,000 at the airport for this express purpose.

Burlingame Pulpit Will Be Vacated

BURLINGAME, Oct. 2. — The Rev. Ira W. Barnett, pastor of the First Methodist Church here, will resign his pulpit effective April 1, it was reported today. The minister's resignation, which will be presented October 11 at a meeting of the church board, will come as the result of differences, it was said.

NOW is the time to make a Fall check-up on LIGHTING IN YOUR HOME

HOW LONG has it been since you made a real check-up on the light in your home?

Empty sockets need fresh new lamps. Burned-out lamps, lamp bulbs darkened with long use should be replaced with fresh new lamps.

Nothing adds more to comfort in the after-dinner hours in the Fall and Winter as a cheerfully lighted home. Nothing is so decorative and yet so inexpensive as electric light. Check-up, light up, and give tired eyes a chance to see better.

Light up for cheerfulness. Let light bring out the beauty of room furnishings. Add life to your living room by having at least one floor or table lamp that throws light upward to illuminate the whole room. This is the best lighting of all to read by, and adds to the hospitality your home expresses to your guests.

See the better lamps of today now being displayed in stores everywhere and in all offices of this company. Then you will know why one of these lamps gives better light to see by than three or four lamps which merely look nice when lighted. Ask about the Special Purchase Terms now in effect.

Ward's Store Adds Six to Sales Force

The manager of the local Montgomery Ward & Co. store announced today that six people have been added to the sales force. They will assist in serving the thousands of thrifty-minded shoppers who will take advantage of the low Ward Week prices.

"By this increase in our sales personnel," Mr. Dana P. Washburn stated, "we are enabled to assure every Ward Week visitor prompt and efficient service, no matter how large the crowd."

The addition of these people is another manifestation of Ward's policy of employing as many local people as possible in Ward's stores. Ward's recognize the truth that a shopper's fellowtownsman is more likely to know the community's tastes and desires than anyone else.

Ward Week starts this week and Mr. Washburn, store manager, has announced that savings are far larger even than Ward's usually attractive offerings. Many items are brand new merchandise never shown before—created and manufactured especially for Ward Week. Judging from the response to former Ward Weeks Mr. Washburn feels that the shoppers of the peninsula will take a keen interest in this annual Fall event.

Coast Growers Ask U. S. Help In Price Fight

Artichoke Output Is In Racketeer Hands, Is Complaint

Racketeering in the artichoke market, which forces growers of three coast counties responsible for the nation's crop to sell at prices below cost, will be laid before the federal government.

Growers decided on Sunday at a mass rally in the Half Moon Bay Theatre, with producers from San Mateo, Santa Cruz and Monterey counties participating.

The growers announced a committee to work out an NRA code as a protection to themselves and will ask the government to look into racketeering of the product in New York and other large centers.

The meeting was called by Manuel J. Bettencourt, Half Moon Bay justice, at the request of growers. Bettencourt was chairman, and Louis Parenti, Davenport, Santa Cruz county, grower, was named secretary. Directors selected are D. Conti, Castroville, Monterey county; Parenti; C. F. Humphrey, Pescadero; Dante Dianda, Half Moon Bay, and Fred Tiffei, Davenport.

A field committee was also named and consists of Dianda, Henry Daneri, Charles Cavalli, Tony Santos, and M. E. Cardoza.

The gathering was addressed by Mayor Joseph Quinlan of South San Francisco, who told of the benefits of that community under NRA codes; Congressman John J. McGrath, who promised to promote an "Artichoke Day" and who would back the federal inquiry into racketeering, and Chauncey Tramutolo, prominent San Francisco attorney.

The state department of agriculture pledged its aid in the campaign to help the growers.

The charge was made that the artichokes were bringing large sums in the New York market but through racketeering the growers were being forced to sell at a price that makes it hard to meet expenses.

Local Dealer For ABC Beer Is Announced

Today marked the advent of bottled ABC beer in Redwood City, with the Orange-Kist Bottling Company of this city announced as distributors.

ABC beer, an old favorite among beverages, has been rated as a "best seller" at Tijuana, Mex., since 1915, and at Agua Caliente. It hold a world's fair gold-medal.

The Aztec Brewing Company, producers of ABC, moved its plant to San Diego with the legalizing of the 3.2 per cent beer. It has now been enlarged into one of the west's major breweries. Following months of aging in casks, ABC bottled beer is now available to Northern California.

The beer is being distributed in full-pint bottles, which, according to local dealers, means "one more glass to the bottle, one more gallon to the case."

While an Atlanta drug store clerk slept in the building as night watchman, burglars entered, stole his trousers, watch and $34 in cash.

Cleaner Streets Object of City Council Orders

Enforcement of the city ordinance forbidding merchants to sweep waste goods from stores into the streets has been ordered by the city council.

The chamber of commerce protested the unsightliness of the city streets and placed part of the blame on the merchants. Some of the blame was also put on the school children, who were accused of throwing their noon lunch papers into the gutters.

City Engineer Charles Dimmitt told of the method employed to keep the little park circle opposite Sequoia from being used to conceal the papers, saying that the sprinklers were turned on there just before the noon hour.

Schools, the chamber of commerce, and the merchants will all be asked to cooperate to end the practice.

Cast Chosen For Operetta On 27th, 28th

BURLINGAME, Oct. 3.—Following many tryouts and several weeks of rehearsals, principals have been finally chosen for the Gilbert and Sullivan light opera, "Patience," to be presented by the San Mateo Light Opera Association Friday and Saturday evenings, October 27 and 28, in the auditorium of the Burlingame high school.

The title role of Patience, the milkmaid, and the male lead, Lord Bunthorne, will be played by Ethel and Fred Banks, who are well known on the local stage. Mr. Banks was Koko in "The Mikado," spring offering of the association. Mrs. Banks, like her husband, has had professional experience before the footlights.

Mrs. Betty Nowell, Hillsborough society matron with a fine voice and a flair for comedy, is cast for the buxom Lady Jane.

Harrison Coles will have the leading tenor role of the Duke of Dunstable. Mr. Coles has had considerable stage experience and scored a hit as Nanki Po in "The Mikado." Percy Hutchings, who also had an important role in The Mikado, is cast as Archibald Grovesnor. Others in the cast include H. H. McKelvie as Coloney Calverly; Carl F. Ohliger as Major Murgatroyd; Katherine Houston, Lady Angela; Kataleen Appling, Lady Saphir, and Suvilla Hilmer, Lady Ella.

Only 640,000 sheep were shorn in Indiana this year, compared with 655,000 last year.

Accused Motorist Taken to Hospital

Mrs. Helen Parker, 30, of 212 Grand boulevard, San Mateo, who was held by Burlingame police to face a drunk driving charge, was taken from the county jail to the Community Hospital for examination Tuesday when she complained of injuries to her chest.

Mrs. Parker ran her car into a police patrol automobile in Burlingame Sunday night. She was held under $250 cash bail.

OPEN HIGHWAY OFFICES

SAN MATEO, Oct. 3—Offices were opened in the Frederick Smith Building, Third avenue and B street, yesterday for the state division of highways. This is preparatory to the beginning of surveys on the new $70,000 unit of the San Joaquin-to-the-Sea highway from the Skyline summit to Half Moon Bay.

CHICAGO PEOPLE RESIDING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Meacham, of Chicago, are making their home in Redwood City. Their house is at 86 Claremont avenue.

Widely-Known Woman Dead In Burlingame

Mrs. Mary Miller, 70, prominent in club and civic circles, died Sunday night at her home at 1418 Bellevue avenue, in Burlingame.

She was the wife of George B. Miller, president of Cogswell Polytechnic High School, the mother of Dr. John Blood of Redwood City; and the sister of George A. Merrill of Redwood City and Fred Merrill of Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Miller was a native of Portland, Maine. She came to California 50 years ago, and to Burlingame in 1905. She was one of the founders and the first president of the Burlingame Woman's Club; the first woman on the Burlingame school board; the first chairman of the Burlingame library board and the first woman foreman of a county grand jury.

The body is at the William Crosby funeral parlors, where funeral arrangements are being made today.

Health Director Talks to Exchange Club on His Work

Dr. Harold Morrison, recently appointed director of health and welfare, told the Redwood City Exchange Club Tuesday that substantial savings can be made in the county's medical and relief work, if he is given a free hand in carrying out his duties.

The health chief said he considered himself directly responsible to the people who had voted for the new charter, which sets up a "new deal" in health and welfare activities. He described how the Community Hospital, medical director, public health nurse, social service, supervisors, county executive and other agents and agencies tie in with the board of health and welfare.

Dr. Morrison stated that he is opposed to using the Community Hospital to compete against private hospitals. He also is opposed to political influence in placing patients in the Community Hospital who can afford to go to private hospitals.

Another recommendation of the health executive is that intoxicated persons be handled through the jails rather than the county hospital.

The chairman of last night's meeting, which was held in Hotel Sequoia, was Carroll D. Hall.

Birthday Party at Maurice Boos Home

A birthday party was given recently at the Portola home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Boos on the occasion of the first anniversary of their son, Maurice Jr. Present were Bonnie Broadus, Tommy Arata, Leonard Boos and Charles Boos. Assisting were the baby's grandmother, Mrs. F. Augstein, and his aunts, Mrs. Arata, Mrs. Broadus and Mrs. Baumbartner.

Rosalie Carrington Hurt in Accident

Miss Rosalie Carrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis M. Carrington, incurred a painful scalp injury Saturday in an automobile accident at the College of the Pacific in Stockton. She is confined to the infirmary at the college, and was reported today to be convalescing satisfactorily.

Miss Carrington was recently chosen to play the part of Mrs. Beam in C. K. Munro's comedy, "At Mrs. Beam's," to be presented at the Pacific Little Theater October 12 and 13 under the direction of De Marcus Brown.
